Grand Lake Update:

This is a special week at Grand Lake. We will have our dedication service for the new building on 1-24-10 at 10 AM. It is a very special time in the Church and a time of remembrance of all those that have sacrificed in giving and praying asking God to do something special there. God has put a body of believers together where there was no body before. What a beautiful thing to see as we watch on Sunday and Wednesday as those that should be added to the Church respond to the call of God to come and join with the Body of Christ. We now have 3 candidates for baptism as soon as we get some pretty weather. A wife of one of the men we are to baptize will join when we present him for membership after baptism. Our membership is at 35 and we are suppose to have another couple join this week. (Praise God!!!) The van ministry is in full swing and we are transporting between 10 and 20 children and adults. We were unsure as to the use of two vans, but we are using both of them. What a privilege we have to participate in the Church, a great mystery that sprang out of the heart of God. A mystery that had been hidden from man from eternity past. (Eph. 3:1-13) Please continue to pray for us as we follow God and that we would be good stewards of HIS resources.

In HIS service; To HIS glory, Bro. Mike Paris
